be sold, regardless of price, but

PAINT

The Celebrated
Lion Paints.

For house, inside and out, roofs, barns, wagons and carriages. As sales seem to be the order of the day, and our buggy sale was such a phenomenal success, we feel emboldened to declare Another Big Sale in order to clean up our stock of Paints and to prevent our having to carry any of it over this winter. Beginning today all the Paints we have on hand will go; price positively no consideration.
If you need Paint, now is your chance. Remember, too, we make good. You are not taking any chances—no C. O. D.'s, leakage, excessive express or freight charges. All you have to do is to come in and tell us what you desire to paint and what color you want and we will do the rest. Lion Paint will MAKE GOOD, for our guarantee is behind it.

vast amount of coal in the Kanawha also denied a market because of low water in the Ohio, but enabled to reach the Ohio river because of the canalization of the Kanawha, just reach that city because of the canalization of

We hear of workmen saying that this time they intend to vote for Mr. BRYAN, because for the past ten months we have had hard times.

Labor World
Wants to Know.

But what good will that do? How is a tariff for revenue, ignoring the protection idea altogether going to open the shops and the mills?

How will the election of Senators by direct vote start the wheels of industry?

Or the publication of campaign contributions?

Or the further harassment of the railroads?

Or the reorganization of the House, so that the Speaker may be powerless?

Why open this country now to the markets of the world when we have not sufficient demand to consume what we ourselves manufacture?

Under Republican rule we have had just ten years of unparalleled prosperity?

Under Democratic administrations we have never had prosperity for any period, long or short.—Pittsburgh Labor World.

We hasten to remark that "Rev. Roseberry" is a sweet-scented geranium.

The time is here when it is difficult for Presidential candidates to get the tin for their itineraries.

While the flying machine stock is going up the machines manage to come down with fearful results.

In breaking the world's aeroplane records Mr. ORVILLE WRIGHT got broke up pretty badly himself.

The Wright Brothers might take as their text or motto: "The higher the flight, the harder the fall."

The Virginia merchants are boycotting Baltimore. Their grievance is that the leading newspapers of that city are against BRYAN.

WHEN THINKING OF MARRIAGE.

Judge.

Learn whether she is selfish. You can tell this in three ways—by the manner in which she listens to what you say, by the way she accepts what you do for her, and by the difference between the way she treats you and the way she treats others.

Is she fickle? If she talks about light things she isn't. Deep, she is.

Is she extravagant? Study the way in which she protests against your spending money on her and always arranges matters so that you can't help but do it.

Is she a bad housekeeper? Watch the way she dresses. If she is epic and span she isn't. If she isn't then she is.

THE SOLUTION.

When you have satisfied your mind that she is all of these things marry her at once, if you can get her, for the following reasons:

First, because if she really loves you she will change.

Second, because if you love her it will be so much more interesting.

Third, because you are probably mistaken about her, anyway.

TIMES-STAR CINC.

On shame's eternal camping ground Their silent tents are spread And Bryan guards, with solemn round, The bivouac of the dead—

DISTRUSTS MR. BRYAN

Letter of an Old Time Democrat to His Son.

COMPARES TWO CANDIDATES.

Demonstrated Ability of Mr. Taft Contrasted With the Vacillation of the Democratic Leader — Progressive Conservatism Versus Radicalism.

My Dear Son—You are now of age and about to exercise the right of an American citizen for the first time.
Since you appear undecided as to which party to ally yourself with and have asked my advice upon this point, I will impart to you my own feelings in the matter.

I have regarded with increasing alarm the growing radicalism of the Democratic party and have long questioned the wisdom of many of its measures and both the sincerity and ability of certain of its leaders. I have, however, never hesitated until the present election to give it my unqualified support, for, while disliking Mr. Bryan and heartily disapproving a platform devoted to the free and unlimited coinage of silver as opposed to sound money and a gold standard, I nevertheless remembered my party loyalty and voted the Democratic ticket. For the same reason I voted as I had always done in the election of 1900, though less in sympathy with the Democratic platform than ever before and thoroughly convinced that the humanity of the American people would in the long run entirely approve the action of a Republican administration in liberating Cuba and the Philippines from the shackles of Spain, in developing their resources and in governing them wisely and firmly until such a time as they should be enabled to stand upon their own feet.

When in 1904 Mr. Parker received the nomination of my party I entertained lively hopes that we had at last hit upon a man who would unite the conservatism of the old with the progressiveness of a new Democracy. You will perhaps recall how bitterly I was to be disappointed, both in the makeshift policy of the party and in the bloodless character of the man.

After the overwhelming defeat of 1904 I gradually awoke to the fact that I was almost totally out of sympathy with the controlling forces in my party and began to feel something of disgust for the advocates of Populism, bimetallism, imperialism and radicalism. I am now of the opinion that the Democratic party cannot hold its conservatism and its Socialists at the same time. The bonds were bound to break and have done so. Feeling the lack of a leader, thousands of the moderate wing of the Democratic party have flocked to the Republican standard. I have watched whole states become Republican which had always been staunchly Democratic. This will undoubtedly be true of Kentucky and Tennessee, and I should not be surprised to see Georgia and Florida following in their lead.

In looking over the platforms of the two principal parties I have been able to discover so little dissimilarity and hostility in all of the more vital measures that I begin to feel strongly that the ensuing elections will be a question of men rather than of issues and for this reason advise you to scrutinize the characters and careers of the respective candidates with the greatest care.

Both are men of the highest personal character and irreproachable in private and personal qualities. The crucial test is in the showing of their qualifications for public administration of large affairs and in their perception of the true public interest in the issues of the day. Such a test and such a comparison, it seems to me, are greatly in favor of Mr. Taft. He has had large experience in a variety of offices of trust and authority, exhibiting administrative ability of a very high order in every position to which he has been called. His rule in the Philippines and Cuba excited most favorable comment throughout the country. His superb equipment for the presidential office must appeal to the judgment of a large class of more or less independent voters when compared with Mr.

Bryan's entire lack of experience as an administrator and his superabundant endowments as a theorist and a manufacturer of phrases. I can never forget that he has been defeated in almost every contest, whether national or local, into which he has ever entered, while the only two issues, the distinct product of his own brain, "sixteen to one silver" and "government ownership of railroads," have been forcibly repudiated, the former by the American people in the elections of 1896 and 1900 and the latter by the Democratic party itself. Of the two men I am inclined to regard Mr. Taft as the broader and less sectional and the less inclined to arouse class hostility.

Two years ago I could not have voted the Republican ticket, but should have stayed away from the polls altogether.
Recently, however, I have come to consider my duty as an American citizen as paramount to any obligations that I may owe to my party. Though admiring him personally, I really fear Mr. Bryan politically and believe it my duty and for the good of the country to vote for his opponent.

You will ask if I am not afraid to let the Republicans stay longer in power.
A decade ago I should have answered "Yes," but when I reflect upon the patriotic administration of Mr. Roosevelt, who has ruled as one of the best and wisest presidents of our entire history, and when I further reflect upon the great strides which we have made in the production of wealth and general prosperity and that under the guidance of the Republican principles the American people have become the richest nation in the world, with wealth today exceeding that of England and all her colonies and that of France and Germany combined, why, then I am forced to say "No." If this great prosperity has come to us under Republican rule we can, I think, then safely trust it in office for four years more.

In consideration of the somewhat questionable filibustering of the Democratic minority in the house of representatives during the past session there were nevertheless many wholesome and progressive laws enacted which will prove of great benefit to the country. A congress has little need to apologize for lack of work accomplished which has passed an emergency currency bill, appointed a national monetary commission, an employers' government liability bill, a widows' pension bill, a child labor law for the District of Columbia, a new statute for the safety of railway engineers and firemen and repealed the unfair statute applying the American coastwise laws to the Philippines.

In a word, my dear boy, much as I regret the necessity, I nevertheless feel it my duty to vote the Republican ticket and sincerely trust that you will upon the onset of your career ally yourself with that party which has done so much for the laboring and agricultural classes in particular and the entire people in general. Affection-

Shall the people rule—or Bryan?

They Can't Lose Him.
When this campaign is over And Sherman gets his wind, When Taft gets back in clover And Kern gets back to Ind., Then William Jennings Bryan,
With confidence sublime, Will say, of course, "I'll try another time."

TAFT AND CONSTRUCTION or BRYAN AND DESTRUCTION?

Concerning the question of publicity of campaign funds, Mr. Bryan's cou-tentation that it is better to make the contributions public before the election seems a sound one. We are not sufficiently convinced, however, that the vote of the mass of Americans are on the auction block to consider this question of great importance.—Philadelphia North American.

HOSPITAL BENEFIT

At Washington Opera-House—Worthy Means of Aiding Poor People Who Cannot Pay
For Treatment

The Gibson picture entertainment to be presented at the Opera-house Friday evening, September 25th, for the purpose of raising a fund to aid to defray the expenses of poor and unfortunate individuals who may require medical or surgical attention at the Hays-wood Hospital, and who are not able to pay for same, is a very laudable and praiseworthy movement indeed, and should be encouraged by every citizen of our city who has the interest of the worthy invalid poor and afflicted, and the success of our splendid local hospital at heart.

The committee in charge of the entertainment is greatly encouraged at the generous response and fine attendance last Wednesday and Friday evenings at the Public Library, when about thirty of the great Gibson drawings were chosen, and the ladies and gentlemen selected who are to assume the characters in those representations; those present readily consenting to take the parts assigned to them.

The Gibson figures to be given are now all filled and the rehearsals and proper grouping the various characters will be held at the Library every night, beginning tonight at 7:30.

The undertaking is somewhat gorgeous and upon such a stupendous scale, as the scenes will all be represented with true fidelity to art and detail in the exposition of these very interesting figures, that the hearty co-operation of all the participants is earnestly desired in order to make the affair an artistic as well as a financial success.

The entire cast will be made up of about seventy-five of Maysville's 400, including many of our most prominent society maids and matrons and professional and business men.

The argument for each scene will appear upon the house program and tickets are now on sale at Williams' Drugstore, Third and Market.

Come everybody and aid in a worthy cause and be highly entertained.

The charges of W. R. The exposure is the reigning National sensation of the day. The same charges are made against Governor Haskell, Democrat, of Oklahoma, and we all know that that big Texas leader, Senator Joe Bailey, also received a big chunk of money from the Standard Oil Company. Hearst's charges only strengthen the Roosevelt-Taft policies of dealing with the big lawbreaking corporations.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. ### A DELUGE OF CRIME

Three Cold-Blooded Murders in Three Weeks—Two in Six Days

Murdered Within a Stone's Throw of His Mother's Grave

The rapidity with which one murder has succeeded another in Mason county within the past three weeks—all atrocious and wanton in character—is an unenviable record and one very much to be deplored.

There is no fault to be found with the Sheriff and his Deputies, they have ever been prompt in the discharge of duties well performed.

Then wherein lies the fault that red-handed murderers escape the hangman's noose, which they so richly deserve?

Is it that Jurymen are quailish and lax in the discharge of duty perforce of a sensitiveness and tenderness of heart in pronouncing the death sentence?

Be that as it may, it is time for about face and that law, stern and inexorable, though justice withal, assert itself. That a few hangings are needed to stay the sway of murder in Mason county is apparent to the most apathetic.

In a crap game pulled off Saturday night on the outskirts of the town of Washington, near a Cemetery, in which a dozen colored crapshooters participated, Claib Payne, better known as Tar Baby, was shot and killed instantly by Brack Jackson, in a dispute over a nickel. Payne was killed within a stone's throw of his mother's grave in the Cemetery nearby.

Jackson made good his escape from the scene and up to the present time has not been captured.

Sheriff Mackey, accompanied by Policeman John Bradford, together with Nick Gallenstein and his bloodhounds, was on the scene in about two hours after the killing.

The dogs took up the trail and followed the fleeing murderer from point to point and finally traced him to his boarding house in Washington, where he eluded further pursuit. It is surmised that he found his way to this city, where he boarded a Westbound freight for Cincinnati.

Payne is well-known in this city and may have been seen Saturday parading the streets advertising the Box Ball Alley in West Second street. Jackson is a disreputable son of a Captain W. R. Ellis, one of Aberdeen's most venerable and highly esteemed citizens, died suddenly yesterday morning at 10:30 while sitting in his yard conversing with his son, Milburn, at the age of 86 years.

It's not words but deeds that prove true merit.

The deeds of Doan's Kidney Pills For Mayville kidney sufferers Have made their local reputation.

Proof lies in the testimony of Mayville people who have been cured to stay cured.

William H. Paul, 333 East Third street Mayville, Ky., says:

"My opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills has not changed since I first recommended them several years ago, and the statement I gave in their favor at that time still holds good. Before I learned of their merit I was bothered considerably by pains in my back and other symptoms of disordered kidneys. After doctoring unsuccessfully I was induced to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial, procuring them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. They promptly and effectively cured me, and I did not have a return of the difficulty until a short time ago. At that time I again resorted to Doan's Kidney Pills, and, as in the first case, they thoroughly removed every sign of the trouble."

Good Summer Tonic

Most people at this time of the year need a good general system tonic. Even those who take the very best care of themselves find that they are obliged in the hot weather to tone up the system. You may not feel the need of it this week, but you will before long; but whether you do now or not remember that PECOR'S ORANGE PHOSPHO is the best known SYSTEM TONIC. It acts through the blood on every part of the system, reviving and stimulating it to new life and injecting the whole body full of energy. JUST WHAT YOU NEED. Only 50 cents per bottle.
